

Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) Transforming Urban Landscape

Sabka Sapna Ghar Ho Apna

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, addressed States/UTs and multi stakeholders in Lucknow during the “Transforming Urban Landscape,” National Conference on July 28th 2018. The event marked the third anniversary celebrations of the flagship Missions, Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban); Atal Mission for Rejuvenation of Urban Transformation (AMRUT); and the Smart Cities Mission of the Government of India. Addressing the gathering, the Prime Minister said that Urban Administrators present in the gathering, are representatives of the cities that symbolize the hopes and aspirations of New India, and the new generation.

He further stated that the Government aims to provide Housing for All by 2022. Giving statistics, the Prime Minister explained how a lot of efforts and work has been done in this direction. He said that all houses under PMAY(U) have a toilet and electricity connection. He emphasised that these houses are a symbol of women empowerment, as they are registered in the name of women. The Prime Minister had also released funds through Direct Beneficiary Transfer via video link to PMAY(U) beneficiaries from different cities of Uttar Pradesh.

During the event the Prime Minister visited the exhibition of the Urban Missions. The Prime Minister had keenly viewed the displays and live demonstrations of the various Missions. He remarked that the momentum in which the schemes are working clearly indicated the various schemes have amalgamated to benefit the urban citizen. The Prime Minister had also interacted with 35 beneficiaries of PMAY (U) representing each State and UT.

During the visit to the exhibition the Prime Minister viewed the Housing models showcased by State Governments like Jharkhand, Andhra Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Tamilnadu, Madhya Pradesh, Chattisgarh, Uttar Pradesh & Telangana. He also interacted with the daughter of a beneficiary from Tripura wherein she had expressed happiness on the changes that PMAY (U) housing brought in her family.

PMAY(U) Beneficiaries Shared Experience With Prime Minister

The PMAY (U) beneficiaries, would have never imagined that availing a Government scheme would one day give them the opportunity to interact with none other than the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India!

The dream come true for PMAY(U) women beneficiaries during the third anniversary of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban) organised on July 27th – 28th at Lucknow, has not just provided a platform for them to share their experience on a national forum as how far their lives have transformed after availing the scheme but it also pitched a way to establish direct communication with Hon'ble PM, Shri Narendra Modi which they will cherish as a lifetime memory .

Beneficiaries extended their gratitude towards the PM for giving priority to the underprivileged people by introducing a number of schemes. The event witnessed the participation of PMAY beneficiaries from 29 States and 7 Union Territories (UTs). The PM was impressed with the confidence level of the beneficiaries during the event.

The Prime Minister Released The Compendium: Transforming Urban Landscape – Empowering women through PMAY (U).

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi released the Compendium on Success Stories of Women empowerment under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban), during the event “Transforming Urban Landscape: Third Anniversary of Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (Urban), in Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh on July 28, 2018.

The book on Transforming Urban Landscape – Empowering Women through PMAY (U)” is a representation of stories of women from across the country who have experienced the joy of ownership, good health, and a sense of pride in living in a dream home of their own.

The book has finely narrated the stories of women from different walks of life. It has encapsulated their journeys and has re-counted the emotions that come with the pride of owning a house.
