Message from JS&MD (HFA) Shri Kuldeep Narayan

Spring is here and as we welcome a new season, we make way for new beginnings & creating new opportunities to bring smiles on the faces of more & more families by providing them pucca houses.

The past two months, three important projects under PMAY-U were inaugurated by Hon'ble Prime Minister. Two Light House Projects in Lucknow & Ranchi, comprising of more than 2,000 houses, were dedicated to the Nation by Hon'ble Prime Minister & over 24,000 houses in Gujarat which were also inaugurated. With the inauguration of these houses, an additional 26,000 families would get pucca roof over their heads.

So far, we have successfully delivered more than 80 Lakh houses under PMAY-U. With every house delivered under the mission, we move a step closer to our goal of Housing for All. It is our sincere effort to bring happiness in the lives of people, for whom owning a house had always been a distant dream.

PMAY-U has scaled new benchmarks with the adoption of technological innovations in the construction sector through Light House Projects.

This month, on the International Women's Day, different events were held in the States to honour PMAY-U women beneficiaries. I would also like to congratulate women beneficiaries of PMAY-U for leading the way in success of the Mission.

This is a crucial year for PMAY-U Mission with focus on completion of all sanctioned houses for realizing the vision of 'Housing for All'. The Scheme has brought positive changes in people's lives. The stories of life transformation of these beneficiaries are inspirational.

Here's to bringing more smiles & happiness.

Ghar Hua Apna, Pura Hua Sapna

A pucca house protects a family from all adversities and considering the extreme weather conditions of Arunachal Pradesh, a pucca house is the basic need of people living there. Smt-Licha Pipi and Shri Licha Ashok were also suffering due to deplorable condition of their kutcha house and were looking for opportunities to build a house for them and their four children.

“We faced a lot of inconvenience in our kutcha house. Our children constantly told us that they did not like the house and wanted to move out. As parents, we were desperate to provide a secured future and safe living environment to our children. Looking at their condition, it was frustrating for us to continue living there,” Smt Licha Pipi explains.

Their financial conditions did not allow them to pursue their dream to construct a pucca house. Smt Licha Pipi works as an ASHA worker while her husband Shri Licha Ashok is a small-time labourer. At a time when it seemed that all doors have closed for them, the couple learnt about PMAY-U.

“It was through a survey that we found out that we were eligible for financial assistance by the Government to build a pucca house. We filled up the form and our application was approved, after which we got money in instalments from the Government for the construction of our house,” Shri Ashok shares.

This house has all basic amenities like a toilet, water facilities among others. “Our previous house did not even have a proper toilet which created a lot of problems for us and the women in the family suffered the most. However, everything has fallen in place now. We have a beautiful home which our children can call their own,” Shri Ashok says.

“It has been an emotional journey for us with ups and downs. The smiles on our children’s faces explain how happy we are today. We feel protected. The children are able to study properly and have big aspirations in life. We are thankful to the Government for the financial support. It means a lot to have a permanent house that would last a lifetime,” the couple expresses.
