

NONGMAITHEM

Chitra Devi

MANIPUR

India is urbanizing at a faster pace and a permanent and safe place of shelter is what people need. Everyone dreams of owning a pucca house for his/her family. Nongmaithem Chitra Devi, resident of Thongkhong Laxmi Bazar, Manipur, also had a similar dream which was fulfilled through PMAY(U)-Housing for All Scheme.

Her husband N. Mangol runs a small business to make ends meet while Chitra takes care of the family. The couple has two school-going kids. Before constructing the PMAY(U) house, the family faced many problems during extreme weather conditions. However, a pucca house has transformed their lives. The family can now focus on other aspects of life such as health and education.

PMAY(U) has changed the lives of millions of people who dream of a permanent place of shelter. Without such assistance, Chitra and her family would have struggled hard to have a roof over their heads. The family says that they would always remain grateful to Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Manipur Shri Biren Singh and the Thongkhong Laxmi Bazar Municipal Council for fulfilling her dream of owning a pucca house.
